Against
Crawford Gault, Defendant.

NOW, at this day comes Olive Gault, plaintiff in the above entitled cause, before the undersigned Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cape Girardeau county, Missouri, in vacation, and files her petition and affidavit, stating among other things, that the above named defendant is a non-resident of the State of Missouri, and that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him.

It is therefore ordered by the Clerk aforesaid, in vacation, that publication be made notifying him that an action has been commenced against him by petition in the Circuit Court of Cape Girardeau County, in the State of Missouri, the nature and cause of which is to obtain a divorce from the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between plaintiff and defendant.

And plaintiff for her cause of action says that on the 24th day of August, 1887, in the county of St. Louis, in the State of Missouri, she and the defendant were lawfully married, and that she and the defendant continued to live together as husband and wife from the said date of their marriage until the 19th day of April, 1893; that during all that time in which they lived together, husband and wife, the plaintiff truthfully demeaned herself and discharged all of her duties as the wife of the defendant, and at all times treated him with kindness and affection; that said defendant wholly disregarded his duties as the husband of the plaintiff, and that on the said 19th day of April, 1893, the defendant left and deserted the plaintiff, without any cause or excuse whatever, and has ever since said date continuously absented himself from the plaintiff, leaving during all that time, doing nothing towards supporting the plaintiff, or providing her with a home, and all without any cause or excuse whatever, that plaintiff is a resident of Cape Girardeau county, in the State of Missouri, and that she has resided in the said State of Missouri during all her life; that defendant is a non-resident of the State of Missouri so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him.

It is therefore ordered that he be and appear at the next term of said court, to be held at the court house, in the city of Jackson, in the county of Cape Girardeau, State of Missouri, on the first Monday in May, 1896, and on or before the third day thereof, if the term shall so long continue, and if not, then before the end of such term, judgment will be rendered against him, granting to the plaintiff herein a full and complete divorce.

And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published in the Cape Girardeau DEMOCRAT, a newspaper published in said county of Cape Girardeau, for four weeks successively, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the commencement of the next term of said court.
